

10TH ANNUAL PBCS CONFERENCE AGENDA

Professional Baseball Chiropractic Society

CONFERENCE SESSIONS
November 7-8, 2026

SPECIAL KICKOFF EVENTS
Friday, November 6, 2026

Cleveland University-Kansas City
10850 Lowell Avenue, Overland Park, KS 66210

For the most current schedule and event updates, visit probaseballchiro.com

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 6

SPECIAL KICKOFF EVENTS - KAUFFMAN STADIUM

3:15 PM

Attendee arrival

Please arrive and be ready for the stadium tour.

3:30 PM

Exclusive Kauffman Stadium Tour

Behind-the-scenes access at the home of the Kansas City Royals, including the locker room, training room, and Royals Hall of Fame displays. Open to attendees, sponsors, and speakers. Meeting gate details will be announced.

TBA

Private Meet & Greet

Reserved for Team DCs, speakers, and sponsors. Location and time to be announced.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 7

CONFERENCE SESSIONS
CLEVELAND UNIVERSITY-KANSAS CITY

SATURDAY ATTENDEE NOTES

- Team DCs: Wear your PBCS polo shirts.
- Doctors seeking CE credit: Pick up your event badge, sign in for the morning session, and complete the CE information form.
- Students: Sign in, pick up your event badge, and receive your complimentary PBCS T-shirt.

7:00 – 7:35

Registration, Check-In & Visit with the Vendors

Check-in opens at 7:00 AM. Please allow enough time to complete registration before the first session.

7:35

Welcome & Introductions

7:45 – 8:50

Nick Kenney | Head ATC, Kansas City Royals

Thoracic Outlet Syndrome: With and Without Surgical Intervention

8:50 – 9:40

Matt Leonard, PT, DC | St. Louis Cardinals

Evaluation and Treatment of Kinetic Chain Dysfunction

9:40 – 10:10

Visit with the Vendors

10:10 – 11:00

Shawn Caldwell, DC

Restoring Joint Function in the Overhead Athlete: Evaluation and Management of the Kinetic Chain

11:25 – 12:00

Expert Panel and Visionary Award Presentation

Ask the questions you have always wanted to ask baseball professionals and industry insiders who have worked with elite athletes for many years.

12:00 – 1:00

Lunch

Team DCs and speakers will have a sponsored lunch at the university. Other attendees are on their own for lunch; on-site catering options will be available for purchase.

1:00 – 2:40

Carl Cleveland III, DC

Unlocking Human Performance: The Integration of Chiropractic Care into the Sports Industry

2:40 – 3:10

Visit with the Vendors

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 7

CONFERENCE SESSIONS - CONTINUED

3:10 – 4:50	THREE BREAKOUT SESSIONS Everyone meet in the main lecture room and the groups will be divided up to go to the breakout locations.
	A. Breaking Down the Rotational Pattern: Assessment and Treatment of Thoracolumbar Mobility Dysfunction Stuart MacIntosh, DC and Greg Williams, PhD, ATC, CSCS
	B. Technique Simulation Lab Experience: Force-Sensing Technology in Chiropractic Bradley Verburg, BS, DC and Megan Baginski, BS, DC
	C. Dynamic Motion Sensing Lab Steven Reece, DC, BS
4:50 – 5:40	Shawn Caldwell, DC Restoring Joint Function in the Overhead Athlete: Evaluation and Management of the Kinetic Chain (Continued)
After session	PBCS Team DC Group Photos Team DCs: Wear your PBCS polo shirts. Sponsors and college groups are welcome to join the team doctors for photos.

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 8

CLOSING SESSIONS - CLEVELAND UNIVERSITY-KANSAS CITY

SUNDAY TEAM DC NOTE

Wear your official team merchandise. Championship rings are welcome.

7:15 – 7:30	CE Sign-In
7:30 – 7:45	Visit with the Vendors
7:45 – 9:40	Sean Drake, DC OnBaseU Performance Chiropractic: Integrating Movement Assessment & Performance Modalities
9:40 – 10:20	Visit with the Vendors
10:20 – 12:00	Sean Drake, DC OnBaseU Performance Chiropractic (Continued)
12:00 PM	Conference Concludes That is a wrap for the 10th Annual Professional Baseball Chiropractic Society Conference. See you next year!

10 YEARS STRONG

RAISING THE STANDARD IN PROFESSIONAL BASEBALL CHIROPRACTIC

Schedule subject to change. Please check the PBCS event page for the latest updates.